An engaging guide for parishes seeking to cultivate communities of discipleship and vibrant, dynamic faith.

Highly acclaimed for his work with parish renewal and the New Evangelization, Fr. James Mallon shares with us the many ways for bringing our parishes to life. Through humorous and colourful stories, Mallon challenges us to rethink our models of parish life, from membership-based communities to assemblies of disciples of Jesus who proclaim and share the good news with all peoples. Accessible and engaging, Divine Renovation turns to the Church's many writings on evangelization and mission so as to articulate practical ways for injecting new life into our parishes. Pastors and parish ministers will be inspired by this book and turn to it for many years to come. This book is also recommended to all parishioners seeking to be effective in bringing their parishes to life.

“...What is ‘our’ place in this community of believers? How do we relate to all the other believers who have preceded us? The following pages will certainly help you respond to these questions and help you discover the fullness of our Catholic doctrine. The author, Mr. Stephen Walford, takes us on a journey – a very interesting and well-planned journey – which is enlightened by the Word of God, nourished by the Fathers of the Church, and guided by the Magisterium of the Church. A journey that may well lead all who choose to take this road less traveled to discover an irresistible invitation to holiness.

When we become aware that the Church is the Communion of Saints, we can no longer live as isolated individuals, or feel that we are alone or forgotten. We belong to God, we are members of God’s family. We are the People of God. In our Family, we are all sinners ...”

Taken from foreword by Cardinal Gérald Cyprien Lacroix

Fr. James Mallon and Cardinal Gérald Cyprien Lacroix are two of the keynote speakers at the 2019 New Evangelization Summit, which takes place May 4, 2019 in Ottawa. The Summit is being livestreamed to locations around the globe, two of which are located in our diocese: St. Martin’s School in Terrace Bay and St. Agnes Church in Thunder Bay! More information about the 2019 New Evangelization Summit to follow over the coming weeks. To register for this free event, visit newevangelization.ca.
