These days, it's challenging to be a Catholic. The collection of entries in Why I Love Being Catholic celebrates the best of the Catholic faith, highlights the everyday miracles taking place all around us, and reminds us that there are thousands of everyday heroes out there who dare to have big dreams for the Church. Even amidst the challenges of our times, holiness is possible, grace abounds, and there is every reason to live our lives with hope!

new reads

Constant Hope offers reflections derived from meditating on a scriptural text to serve as a source for keeping hope alive and steadfast. Prompted by questions at the end of each reflection, each portion is intended to be integrated into the reader's mind, heart and active life.

Walk a New Path by Archbishop Sylvain Lavoie is an invaluable guide to recovery and a source of emotional strength for those who are dealing with grief, addiction or depression, based on the Twelve Step program. Moving back towards clear, ordered thinking can be difficult. Lavoie lays out each of the 12 steps for healing, drawing from personal stories and Christian tradition to offer a roadmap to recovery.

In Anchors for the Soul, prayers, poems, blessings, and meditations from Rupp's many works are brought together to offer daily wisdom that will guide you and keep you anchored to God throughout the year.
