This work is a winsome and beautifully written account of a modern spiritual journey. It tells the colourful and gripping story of one man's religious path from a fundamentalist Baptist childhood to an adolescence in emergent church spirituality. He moves on through hipster years as a house painter and a musician, then marries and enters a seminary in Wisconsin.

After years of wearing a black cassock and preparing to be an Anglican priest, he boldly joins the Catholic Church.

An Immovable Feast is a profound love story told with humour, wisdom, and bite. A fresh breeze blows through it as Tyler Blanski reminds us that the Catholic religion is not dead because it is not mortal. It is the festival of heaven on earth.

The son of a pagan father and a Christian mother, Saint Augustine spent his early years torn between conflicting faiths and world views. His Confessions, written when he was in his forties, recount how, slowly and painfully, he came to turn away from his youthful ideas and licentious lifestyle, to become instead a staunch advocate of Christianity and one of its most influential thinkers. A remarkably honest and revealing spiritual autobiography, The Confessions also address fundamental issues of Christian doctrine, and many of the prayers and meditations in includes are still an integral part of the practice of Christianity today.

POPE PAUL VI
Humanae
Vitae
On Human Life

FOREWORD BY MARY EBERSTADT
AFTERWORD BY JAMES HITCHCOCK
POSTSCRIPT BY JENNIFER FULWILER

IGNATIUS PRESS / AUGUSTINE INSTITUTE

The papal encyclical Humanae Vitae (On Human Life) made headlines worldwide. Many talked about the encyclical when it was issued in 1968, but few actually read it. Why is it perhaps the most controversial document in modern Church history?

On Human Life combines Humanae Vitae with commentary by popular and respected Catholic authors Mary Eberstadt, James Hitchcock, and Jennifer Fulwiler in order to address this question and shed light on the document's enduring wisdom.
