Advent, Week Four, December 20th:

Trust in God's love and say yes. Life in God is filled with promise, with signs and wonders. When difficult questions have to be answered, when tough choices have to be made, only love can move us in the direction of life. At times like these we need other people to walk with us and to reassure us. How different the story of Christmas would be if Mary and Joseph had let fear and anxiety triumph over love, trust and faith. Would we tell the story at all? In difficult times now and in the year ahead, remember the Christmas story and believe that God is with you.
