Rejoice and Give Thanks: On Sunday, Oct. 9, 2022 in St. Peter's square, Rome, Pope Francis canonized Bishop Giovanni Battista Scalabrini, the founder of the Scalabrini Fathers Order. He was the bishop of Piacenza in Italy. He died on June 5, 1905. He was a great missionary for Migrants and Italian Immigrants. He founded the Missionaries of Saint Charles, known as the Scalabrini Fathers today. Pope Pius XII later titled him as the "Apostle to the Migrants" while Pius X had seen in him "the learned, meek, and strong bishop, while Benedict XV thought of him as a "bishop beyond compare" as did Pope Pius XI who praised the "episcopal and pastoral spirit of the saintly bishop". Since the Scalabrini Fathers worked for many years in our diocese, and we have many fond memories of these dedicated priests, we rejoice with them and their community as their founder, Bishop Giovanni Battista Scalabrini is declared a saint in the Catholic Church.
