Service: The Gospel of the Fifth Sunday of Lent we hear Jesus say:” Whoever serves me, must follow me, and where I am, there will my servant be also. Whoever serves me, the Father will honour,” Being a servant for Jesus, means using our gifts and talents, sharing our abundance and generously responding to the needs of our sisters and brothers, especially those in developing countries who are struggling for freedom, human rights and the necessities of life. We can do this most readily in our support for Development and Peace through our parishes. Service is a hallmark of all Christians, and we can serve others both locally and world wide. We are all members of the one body of Christ and when we serve, we know that Christ is with us. During this week of Lent, let us show how we can serve one another with generous hearts, as servants of Jesus, especially in our outreach to the poor, the sick, and the suffering.
